THE GREEN MOUNTAIN BOYS.

FROM "NEW YORK IN THE REVOLUTION."

These muster-rolls are recorded as "Major Brown's Detachment," and that detachment is mentioned as in "General Arnold's Regiment." The fact that the "Green Mountain Boys" were at Quebec in 1776; that this detachment was also at Quebec in 1776; that two of the officers on these rolls,—Captain and Commissary Elijah Babcock and Captain Robert Cochran,—are identical in name and rank with those on a list handed to the Provincial Congress of New York by Ethan Allen and Seth Warner, on July 4, 1775, as officers for the Green Mountain Boys; and the further fact that none of the men are recorded in any other place, or with any other organization, all confirm the belief that the soldiers on its rolls herewith were a part of that historic band.

MEN WITH ETHAN ALLEN AT TICONDEROGA.

We copy the following article from the Burlington, Vt., Free Press in the hope of aiding Mr. Bascom in his search.

To the Editor of the Free Press :

Dear Sir:—I am tempted once more to ask you to publish the names of those who were engaged in the expedition against Ticonderoga under Ethan Allen. Twice before this list has been published in your valued sheet and each time it has brought numerous additions and corrections to the roll. I cannot believe that the sources of information are as yet wholly exhausted. Some names that have been heretofore found in the list are now omitted because further investigation has convinced the author that such names had been improperly inserted. If any one is able to add to the appended list of names, I should be grateful for any information in this regard; and if correspondents will refer to the authority for the statements contained in their communications, my obligations will be increased. All communications upon this subject will be promptly acknowledged.

The roll today stands as follows :—

Colonel Ethan Allen,	Amos Callendar,
Benedict Arnold,	Major Noah Callendar,
Thomas Ashley,	John Crigo,
Ira Allen,	Colonel Robert Cochran,
Ebenezer Allen,	Captain Benjamin Cooley,
Heman Allen,	Colonel John Chipman,
Levi Allen,	Captain Asa Douglass,

NOTES.

THE ORIGINS OF DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.

The historical and antiquarian significance of the laying of the corner-stone of the new Dartmouth Hall is described as follows by H. D. Foster, Professor of History at the college, in the January, 1905, number of the "American Historical Review":—

"The visit of the Earl of Dartmouth in connection with the laying of the corner-stone of the new Dartmouth Hall is a reminder of the origins of the college. The exercises of October 25-26, at Hanover, were accordingly made distinctly historical. Ten historical tableaux pictured incidents in the first half century of the institution. In an address on 'The Origins of Dartmouth College,' Professor Francis Brown, of Union Seminary, with more insight than has been shown by any other writer, traced the coöperation of four men of like 'historic purpose'—Wheelock, Whitefield, Dartmouth, and Governor John Wentworth—in the founding of the college. The sites of the earliest buildings were marked and in President Wheelock's former mansion house were exhibited over two hundred rare manuscripts, text-books, coins, articles of furniture, and other memorabilia of the days of the first two presidents. At the banquet in his honor, Lord Dartmouth made a speech of marked felicity and grace. The responses of the presidents of Harvard, Yale (by letter), William and Mary, of Elihu Root of Hamilton, and Dr. Charles A. Eastman, of the class of 1887, the latest Indian graduate, all illustrated the thought dominant throughout the celebration, and happily phrased by President Eliot as 'transmissive power.' The proceedings, including all the speeches, will be published.

"The manuscripts presented to the college by Lord Dartmouth, on the reception of his honorary degree of LL. D., are with a few exceptions those noted under the heading 'Wheelock'
